Article appearing in "The Milwaukee Journal," Milwaukee, Wisconsin, dated 6/22/65, captioned, "2 Salesmen Arrested on US Tax Charges," sets forth the following:

"Two former roofing and siding salesmen here were arrested Monday night on federal tax charges.

"The defendants are John J. Aiello, 49, of 2761 S. Herman St., and Kenneth J. Weiss, 42, of 3701 S. Griffin St.

"Aiello was arrested by federal marshals at his home; Weiss in Toledo. They appeared before United States commissioners, who released them on recognizance bonds.

MI 92-315

"Both were named in four count federal indictments returned here June 8. Weiss was charged with failing to file income tax returns from 1959 through 1962. During that time he earned $48,059, the government claimed.

"Aiello is charged with three counts of failing to file tax returns, for the years 1960, 1961 and 1962, during which time he earned $19,502, according to the government.

"He is also charged with evading $10,607 in taxes for 1959.

"The maximum penalty for income tax evasion is five years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine. The maximum penalty for failing to file a return is one year's imprisonment and a $10,000 fine.

"Aiello and Weiss were charged in December, 1961, with participating in a scheme to sell forged mortgages to lending institutions on roofing and siding jobs. The charges were dismissed by Circuit Judge Herbert J. Steffes.

"The two were found guilty, however, of charges that they violated state agriculture department regulations in the sale of siding to farmers near Sparta. Circuit Judge Lincoln Neprud, of Viroqua, fined Aiello $250 and Weiss $1,100 on those charges."

92-227-150

Article appearing in "The Milwaukee Sentinel," Milwaukee, Wisconsin, dated 8/10/65, captioned, "Two Deny Tax Charge," sets forth the following:

"Two Milwaukee men pleaded not guilty Monday in federal court to tax charges.

MI 92-315

"John J. Aiello, 40, of 2761 S. Herman St., pleaded not guilty to charges of evading $1,872 in taxes in 1959 and of failure to file tax returns from 1960 through 1961. The government claims he earned $29,502 in the three year period.

"Judge Kenneth P. Grubb said Aiello's trial would be after mid-October.

"Kenneth Weiss, 42, of 3701 S. Griffin St., pleaded not guilty to charges of failure to file income tax returns from 1959-61 during which time he earned $48,059, according to the government.

"No date was set for Weiss' trial."

147-139-103

Article appearing in "The Milwaukee Journal," Milwaukee, Wisconsin, dated 8/10/65, captioned, "2 Deny Charges of Tax Evasion," sets forth the following:

"Two men pleaded not guilty in federal court Monday to charges of income tax evasion.

"The defendants are Kenneth J. Weiss, 42, of 3701 S. Griffin St., and John J. Aiello, 49, of 2761 S. Herman St.

"Weiss was charged with failure to file income tax returns from 1959 through 1961. The government alleged that he earned $48,059 during that time.

"Aiello was accused of evading $1,872 in taxes in 1959 and of failing to file tax returns in 1960 and 1961. He earned $29,502 during the three years, the government charged.

"No trial dates were set."

92-145-1676

Article appearing in "The Milwaukee Journal," Milwaukee, Wisconsin, dated 7/21/66, captioned, "Man Given 60 Days on Tax Count," sets forth the following:

"Kenneth J. Weiss, 43, a roofing and siding salesman, Wednesday received a 60 day sentence and was placed on two years probation for failure to file a federal income tax return in 1959. Federal Judge John W. Reynolds imposed the sentence and probation after Weiss, 3701 S. Griffin St., pleaded guilty. His income in 1959 was placed at $11,901.

"Weiss was indicted in June, 1965, on four counts of failure to file income tax returns from 1959 through 1962.

"During that period, the internal revenue service alleged, Weiss earned $48,060.

"After Weiss was found guilty on the 1959 count, the remaining ones were dismissed on a government motion.

"One of the conditions of Weiss' probation was that he file delinquent returns and pay back taxes."

Frank Stelloh was contacted in front of his residence at 5746 South 116th Street, Hales Corners, and briefly apprised of the reason for the interview. Stelloh's first words were after advising that perhaps some friends were involved, that he has no friends and when advised that perhaps it was an associate from Waupun and advised of the names of the two victims, [redacted] Stelloh vehemently denied knowing these individuals and said that he had spent 23 years in prison and met a lot of people. He was shown the composites and advised that he did not know them and before he could even see the second composite, he said he did not know him either.
